Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT

a) & b): Yes Madam, The Utilization Certificates (UCs) sent by the Government of Karnataka were examined and the funds were released for the projects meeting the criteria as per JnNURM guidelines.

c) & d): As per the decision of Government of India, for the incomplete projects of JnNURM sanctioned up to 31.03.2012 in which 50% or more of the ACA has already been released and physical progress is at least 50% as on 31.03.2014 according to the reports given by the State Governments, the funding would be available up to 31.03.2017. The details of projects sanctioned for Karnataka under JnNURM during 2005-12 and which are eligible for funding till 31.03.2017, are annexed. In so far as funding for Buses is concerned, 100% ACA has already been released for bus funding projects sanctioned for Karnataka during 2005-12.

(e)& (f): Yes Madam, the projects sanctioned during the Transition Phase i.e. during 2012-14, and where first instalment was released, are eligible for funding till 31.03.2017. The remaining projects where first instalment could not be released have been considered to be non-sanctioned. JnNURM has already concluded on 31.03.2014. The State Government is free to submit proposals under other urban development schemes including AMRUT as per the relevant guidelines.. Under the new Mission AMRUT, GoI shall approve the State Annual Action Plan (SAAP) and States/UTs shall appraise, sanction and execute projects at their end making the States/UTs equal partners in planning and implementation of projects.
